Si Burgher, a 72 year-old Bloomfield, Indiana Rotarian raised $1600 from people who paid $100 each to take turns trimming his bushy eyebrows. Some of his eyebrows measured over three inches long and had never been trimmed.

Members of his club often wondered aloud what it would take to get Si to trim the eyebrows. Now they know.

His wife Amy Burgher got first whack at the overgrown eyebrows. Si has donated $7,000 to PolioPlus over the years.
