

Del Dreyer To Serve as 2009/2010 President

By Melissa Clark

Public Relations and Marketing Chair

Del Dreyer will become president of the Rotary Club of Tulsa July 1. Our club, which is 93 years old, is the seventh largest Rotary club out of 32,000 around the world. President Del replaces Cory Nickerson who has presided over the club since last July.

As a local businessman, Del serves as president of Financial Security Group Inc., a full-service financial advisory firm, which he has owned since 1980.

A native of Indiana, Del has been a member of Rotary for 27 years, overseeing various volunteer committees including programs, member-ship, classifications and budget. As a board member, he has held leadership positions including club service director and secretary/treasurer. He has also served six years as a trustee of the Tulsa Rotary Community Fund, including three years as chairman.
